Interesting Exercises Were En- joyed by Large Audiences Today

The closing exercises of the supervised playgrounds, North and South commons, Allen street, Greenfield school and Police street, were held this afternoon. The exercises were begun at 2 o'clock and continued to about 4:30. There was a good attendance, and everybody was delighted with the exhibitions on the various grounds. The playground appropriation this year was a very meagre one and the park commissioners were obliged to do the best they could with the money allowed them. The number of supervisors was reduced as was also the pay of the supervisors. The fact, however, remains that although there were fewer instructors and less money the attendance at the different grounds almost doubled that of last year. The supervisors and their assistants worked very hard and for small pay. They were interested in the children and while they worked at a very great disadvantage, the results were very satisfactory. The supervised playgrounds have come to stay and more suitable provision will be made for them in the years to come.

The South Common
The exercises on the South common were well attended. The program was as follows:
2 to 2 p. m. folk dancing by the first division girls, under seven years of age; a. Danish clap dance; b. Swedish dance of pretzels; c. shoe-maker.
Second division, children under 10 years of age; a. Dancing; b. Folk song; c. Norwegian Mountain March; d. Strass; e. Highland dance; f. Rhythmic.
From 2 to 2:40 p. m. a team games of captain ball and volley ball for the older girls; a. Ring games; b. Race, race, beans; c. Former in doll, skipping game, lasso, soldier boy, mufin man, king of France; d. 2 to 4:30 ring toss, Tug-of-war and bean bag game; e. races for girls.

Aiken Street Grounds
As far as the exhibition of work is concerned, the Aiken street playground is almost in a class by itself. The work done there by the little girls is simply wonderful. Of course the young women in attendance took great joy in the exhibition of the exercises. In charge of Miss Katherine Tobin, Miss Vera Corbin, Miss Mary Reardon and Miss Juliette McKissick.

When a reporter of The Sun called at the playground today he was shown the finest exhibit ever produced by children at the playgrounds. The articles consist of button sets, fine pieces of crocheted work, such as large, elaborate baby jackets, mittens and various other useful articles. The mothers have also contributed largely for the goods used, for they felt that their children were learning something useful, while the pieces of garment manufactured will later be utilized. The girls have also learned how to crochet lace and most every piece of cloth on exhibition is trimmed with embroidery or lace. The babies were taught how to make doll clothes, and their end of the exhibition is very satisfactory. The supervisor for the girls is Miss Regina Frappier and her assistants are Misses Mary C. Joyce and Gladys Malone. There was a very large attendance at the closing exercises this afternoon, and the mothers expressed themselves as being very much pleased with the result of the summer season. The program consisted of physical exercises under the sweet strains of a hurdy-gurdy. This was followed by captain ball playing by the oldest girls, who also gave a fine exhibition of corner ball, croquet, ring games and other numbers very amusing both for the children and the adults.

Paige Street Playground
The Paige Street playground is not a very elaborate affair, but a great many little ones have found comfort and amusement there during the summer season. The children did not enjoy the sheltering benediction of generous shade trees as did the children on other playgrounds, but they had an

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—American soldiers will be landed in Nicaragua within the next 48 hours. On advice of conditions said to be so serious as to justify being made public in Washington President Taft from Beverly today personally directed the immediate movement of the United States infantry, now on the Panama zone, to Nicaragua to guard American lives and property.

United States marines now being rushed south on the Pacific via Colon, and the cruiser California cannot reach Nicaragua for possibly a week. Despatches of last night and early today pictured the situation as being so acute that an immediate movement of a large force of troops was necessary. The Tenth regiment to full war strength and fully equipped for campaigning in the tropics is to be taken aboard merchant ships in the harbor of Panama and rushed to Corinto. They will be dispatched along the line of the railroad from Corinto to Managua, the capital, at points where American Minister Weitzel and Commander Terhune of the gunboat Annapolis believe they will afford most protection. Col. Greer commands the regiment.

Allegations of conditions bordering on barbarism and acts even worse than those which took the troops of the United States into China to quell the Boxers have been received at the state department within the last 24 hours. The deliberate murder of two Americans, Paul and Phillips, after they had been wounded and were held as prisoners, the massacre at Leon on August 19, focused attention on the previous reports of burning soldiers, starvation of political prisoners held in dungeons and other alleged acts of cruelty.

Immediate Protection Needed
The latest reports made plain that immediate protection for Americans was necessary and that it probably would not be safe to wait for the arrival of marines now en route. The marines on the Pacific after being landed at Colon, will have to be transported across the isthmus by railroad and taken on the cruiser California to Corinto. This would mean a delay of at least a week. The Tenth infantry can be on the ground in less than two days.

Rebels firing on flags of trade borne by local Nicaraguan troops as well as on marines is said to have been frequent in the last few days. Attacks on women and children and other non-combatants are reported. In the rebel shelling of Managua during the first days of the revolution American Minister Weitzel reported that the firing had been indiscriminate upon the section of the city occupied by the non-combatants and that several Americans narrowly escaped injury by bursting shells.

The United States is assured that the landing of troops has the approval of the Nicaraguan government. The Nicaraguan government is understood to have confessed its inability adequately to meet the situation and frankly to have consented to permit the United States to land its own troops to protect its citizens. The state department has proceeded upon the conviction that its action involves no infringement of the war making power of congress or the president.

It is declared that while there are few precedents for the employment of regular troops in landing expeditions, that fact is accounted for by the far greater mobility and availability of the marines and the bluejackets.

The Pacific mail ship now at Panama will sail tomorrow with one battalion of the Tenth, leaving the remainder of the regiment to be brought up to Corinto on other ships.

United States Forces
With the arrival of the Tenth infantry and the marines now on the way, United States forces actually landed in Nicaragua, and on American warships available for landing will be increased to about 500 men. Further improvement in the situation will be made probably late today of tomorrow, when the gunboat Dover arrives at San Juan Del Sur, the cable station.

The American troops will be expected to keep free from interruption the telegraph lines along the railroad from Managua to Corinto. These lines have been frequently interrupted by small bands of rebels taking stations along the route and the American force of marines has been inadequate to keep the route open.

Commander Terhune recently made one attempt to clear the line but the rebels showed such a hostile front that he was forced to turn back. Although the course of the United States in landing military forces on foreign soil without express approval of congress is being investigated by a special senate committee named at the instigation of Senator Bacon, who has vigorously opposed sending troops outside the United States, the state department takes the position that it is supported not only by congress in China and Central America, but is also bound by the so-called Washington convention to protect rights and property of foreigners and to further the political party which inclined to the department's views and against the elections.

Furthermore it is said there are fully 100 Americans owning plantations in Nicaragua, who must be protected from attack and looting of their properties. Many demands that this government protect American interests there have been registered at the state department.

Sensor Bacon Charges
Senator Bacon virtually charged on the floor of the senate that this government's interference in Nicaragua had a connection with the failure of the loan convention by which Nicaragua was to have borrowed several millions from American bankers and under which only the Nicaraguan railroads, steamships, custom houses and national monopolies were to be administered by representatives of the financiers.

The Diaz government, against which the present revolution is being directed, is said to have approved the attitude of the state department in regard to the loan convention. Senator Bacon loudly intimated in criticism of the state department that American forces were being used in aid of the political party which inclined to the department's views and against the elections.

Reports from other sources have said that Zelaya, the dictator, deposed and exiled to Europe in 1909 after the murder of the two Americans, Cannon and Greer, was behind Gen. Mones, leader of the revolutionists. This is denied by the prominent liberals who support the revolution.

MANY WITNESSES QUESTIONED In Alleged Dynamite Conspiracy Cases in Lawrence

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Interest in the investigation of an alleged conspiracy by mail officials to secrete dynamite in Lawrence during the general strike there last winter centered today in the report of the Suffolk county grand jury which was expected to be submitted to the superior court within a short time, if indictments should be returned.

District Attorney Pelletier questioned a number of witnesses in the dynamite case this afternoon but it was understood that the grand jury heard all the important evidence yesterday. Among those who appeared before the grand jury were John A. Finn, a former Lawrence politician who was fined $500 last spring for disposing of dynamite to certain persons; Louis C. O'Brien and postmaster of Lawrence; George E. Kunkin, of North Andover, treasurer of the Knickerbocker club; Fred C. McNamee, treasurer of the Knickerbocker club; Charles Wabot, treasurer of the Atlantic mill. An effort was made to secure the presence of several other men, but they were either on vacation or could not be located.

Opinions differ as to whether the investigation influenced Ernest Phipps of Andover, a prominent contractor, to commit suicide yesterday morning. Phipps erected two of the large mills in Lawrence and was questioned recently by Mr. Pelletier regarding any knowledge he might have had of the distribution of dynamite in that city. He was to have been a witness before the grand jury.

About 20 members of the Seventh Massachusetts battery, many of them accompanied by their wives and children, attended the 23d annual reunion and 50th anniversary of that organization today at Willow Dale park. The party met at the waiting room of the Bay State Street R. R. Co. at Merrimack station at 11 o'clock and left for their destination on the 1:30 car.

Among the comrades and associates who were present were: James W. Beane and wife, of West Somerville; George R. Dicker and wife of Doylestown, Pa.; J. H. Hodge of Chelsea; Moses A. Cleveland of Willoughby, O.; Henry L. Bennett and wife of Baldwinville, Mass.; Henry E. Foster of Oakdale, N. W. Stone of Boston; Charles H. Ellis of Boston; Henry H. Clark of Randolph; George W. Shedd of Randolph; Ralph K. Corlies of Randolph and Franklin T. Wilson, Benjamin F. Crosby, and William E. Farrell of this city.

Dinner was served at 1 o'clock in the hotel and after this a meeting was held at which routine business was transacted and the members of the company called upon to speak. Letters were read from the following absent comrades: James T. Schofield of North Grafton, Mass.; Henry F. Pringle of St. Charles, Mo.; R. E. Fraser of Hecia, South Dakota; C. A. Lewis of Linn, Iowa; J. S. C. Parker of Dorchester, Mass.; William T. Jones of Amherst, Mass.; Samuel W. Benson of Waltham, Mass., and Samuel J.

The members of the Seventh battery this afternoon was a very pleasant reunion and social gathering. Several of those who were present have not been able to attend these gatherings on former occasions and so have not seen their old comrades since they fought side by side in the war. The men to travel the greatest distance to attend this event were Moses A. Cleveland who came all the way from Willoughby, Ohio, and George R. Dicker of Doylestown, Pa. Mr. Cleveland also bears the distinction of being the oldest living member, being now in his 90th year.

The last gun of the Seventh battery of Massachusetts was fired at the close of the war at the capture of Mobile, Ala. on the fourteenth of April, 1865. Many were the battle stories that were rehearsed and retold among the old comrades this afternoon. The greatest joy was manifested on the part of all at meeting the comrades with whom they fought side by side 47 years ago and the hearty manner of greeting one another indicated the depth of their pleasure. They are as good comrades now as they were in the days when together they hauled the cannon up the hillsides and to the front. The party returned late in the afternoon after a very enjoyable day.

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 28.—Having approved a model uniform law intended for adoption by all the states to prohibit the employment of children under certain ages, the American bar association discovered that it had gone on record against the use in any part of the country of "childies" under 14 years of age. The revised law, offered by Walter Smith of Pennsylvania, provides that no child less than 14 shall be permitted to work in or about, among other places "any boarding house, barber shop, laundry, garage, place of amusement or club."

"Childies" as lawyers are zealous patrons of good if it is with considerable perplexity that we discover we have gone on record in a great of putting our important allies out of business," said Smith. "We had no animosity against the childies, but merely were considering the welfare of children in general. Now we will have to part company with our honorable pink-checked assistant and employ those of tougher age."

Mr. Smith's explanation of the exit of the 14-year-old childie was received with applause and the proposed law was endorsed unanimously.

ANGRY SOLDIERS SHOT UP TOWN

Privates in 81st Company, Coast Artillery, Went on Warpath

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 28.—Several privates of the 81st company, coast artillery corps, stationed at Fort Du Pont, Del., shot up Dobbinsville, a suburb of Newcastle, Del., yesterday. They were armed with regulation guns and ball cartridges.

The main point of attack was the dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. William Maher and their four children. Nearly every window was shot out and bricks were shot from their fastenings on window ledges. The family sought safety under beds. Mr. Maher appeared at a window and implored the soldiers to stop shooting. Their reply was a bullet that grazed his hair.

Residents of the town estimate that from 50 to 100 shots were fired. The cause of the trouble was a fight last night at Dobbinsville, in which the soldiers were routed. They had been drinking. They returned to the state rifle range, a couple of miles distant, where the 81st and 55th companies were installed for rifle practice, and went to bed, but a couple of hours later arose, armed themselves and started for Dobbinsville to get revenge.

In order to leave the rifle range they were forced to elude the sentries. When the soldiers got back and the affair became known six were arrested. An investigation in charge of Lieut. Marks, in command of the 81st company, was begun.

The men will be tried by a general court-martial at Fort Du Pont. The penalty is imprisonment and dishonorable discharge from the army.

Although the bullets flew thick and fast, no one was hurt. The streets were deserted.

ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Two Men Arrested for a Maine Sheriff

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Within 65 minutes after a long distance telephone message had been received at police headquarters yesterday afternoon from Sheriff Low at Auburn, Me., asking for the apprehension here of two men charged with murder there, Patrolman Glancy at the North station arrested Vito Dellaba, 29 years old, and Pasquale Perelli, 17 years old, as they stepped from the train from Portland at 5:50 o'clock.

Following a stabbing affray in Auburn, Me., yesterday, as a result of which Vince Natone of that place was killed, Sheriff Low telephoned to the Boston police. Patrolman Glancy saw two men get off the Portland train on the wrong side of the platform and start to walk off with their hands over their faces. He arrested both. They are being held for the arrival of an officer from Auburn. After this arrest has been made the chief of police of Auburn telephoned the Boston police that another man was wanted in connection with the murder, Vito Nardo, 38 years old.

TRAINING SCHOOL BOYS

Are Guests of Manager Gray Today

The boys of the North Chelmsford Training school are enjoying an outing today. They were invited by the management of the Lowell baseball team to attend the game this afternoon at Spalding park, between Worcester and Lowell and needless to say, they were elated over the invitation. They left the school at 1 o'clock, and proceeded to Middlesex street, where two special electric cars awaited them. After all were comfortably seated the effort for the ball grounds was made. They arrived in Merrimack square at 2 o'clock, and they remained quite a crowd, owing to the fact that the well known school band of 30 pieces played a number of pleasing selections.

There were 200 boys in the party, and they were in charge of James P. Larkin. The other officers of the institution also accompanied the boys. Upon reaching the park, all marched to the grandstand, where seats were reserved for their benefit. The boys greatly enjoyed the game, and the fans also had much pleasure in watching the progress of the game. The selections were given by the band.

The officers in charge of the school were led in their praise of the management of the team, for the courtesy extended them, in inviting their charge to the game. The party returned to North Chelmsford in the special cars.

ZEISER IS IMPROVING

Expects to be Able to Pitch Soon

Marty Zeiser, one of Lowell's star pitchers, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, suffering from a severe cold, is improving daily and today he reported to Manager Gray at the headquarters of the team in the Hildreth building. The clever pitcher informed the manager that he is feeling much better and expects to soon be able to take his turn on the mound. Manager Gray feels that with Zeiser in condition that he will win the pennant, hands down. At the present time and during Zeiser's illness the team has had but four pitchers, and as a number of doubleheaders will be played during the next few days, he is anxious for Zeiser's return to the field. The latter is also anxious to get back into the harness and expects to be able to do the "monkey" clothes, as he terms his uniform, by next week.

THE BIGELOW CARPET CO.

To Shut Down Friday Night Till Tuesday

The Bigelow Carpet company will close Friday evening of this week and will not resume operations until next Tuesday morning, giving the employees of the large mill a two days vacation. While the officials of the mill intended to close the plant on Labor day, the cause of the idleness on Saturday is due to the fact that the Brussels weavers, and many of the other employees, are on an outing to Nantasket beach on that day. The weavers have distributed a large number of tickets, and as many wanted to take in the excursion and would be unable to do so if the mill worked, the officials, decided to close the plant for the day, so as not to take in the trip.

The weavers have engaged a special train that will leave the Middlesex street station at 8 o'clock and run to Boston. The excursionists will then transfer to Rowe's wharf, where they will take the boat for the beach. Upon the arrival at the wharf the well known resort managers have arranged for all to dine at one of the hotels there. It is expected that the party will be one of the largest that ever left this city, and they will remain at the beach until 7 o'clock.

Upon returning to the Hub the Lowellists will go to the North station, where the special train to convey them to the Spindle City will be awaiting them. The start from the depot will be made at 8:40 o'clock.

After Two Weeks' Vacation

The Whitall Manufacturing company on Rock street will resume operations on Tuesday morning after the annual two weeks' vacation.

BELGIAN ENGINEER

SAID TO HAVE MADE AN IMPORTANT INVENTION

BRUSSELS, Aug. 28.—A mechanical appliance which will render aeroplanes so stable that they cannot upset or plunge to the ground while flying is claimed to have been invented by a Belgian engineer.

It consists of rotary wings which, when put in motion, permit the flying machines to rise directly from the ground, turn in all directions and plane with perfect security at any height. Both progression and ascension, the inventor asserts, can be effected by the apparatus without any backward or forward motion of the wings. He promises fuller details in the near future.

WILL BE PRACTICALLY CLOSED ON SUNDAYS

The effects of the new Sunday law regarding the distribution of the mails will not be such as to greatly delay the mails in this city on that day. However, no mail at all with the exception of the special delivery letters will be distributed on that day. The work of distributing the mails to out-of-town places will continue the same as before. The whole system henceforth will call for a minimum of Sunday work and the postoffice will be practically closed for the day. Some of the mails will be sorted on Sunday to the lock boxes even on Sunday. However, the general work of mail distribution will be discontinued from midnight of Saturday to 12 o'clock on Sunday night.

YOUR BABY'S HEALTH DEPENDS ON ITS NUTRIMENT

In nature's original plan, infants were nourished by mother's milk, but in our modern civilization this is often neither possible nor even advisable.

Failing the natural food, one instinctively turns to cow's milk, but this cannot always be used, as owing to its variable quality and the heavy indigestible curd, the delicate stomach of a young baby cannot always digest the nutriment which it undoubtedly contains.

In such cases

BORDEN'S Malted Milk

It contains six times the nutrition of ordinary milk, but the curd being broken up by digestive agents in the malt, every particle of nutriment is easily absorbed by the very young. MOOSE CARNIVAL

ARRANGEMENTS FOR WEEK AT WASHINGTON PARK

The local Moose committee reports excellent progress in connection with the big Moose carnival and circus to be held at the Washington park grounds all next week and all seem fully satisfied with the prospects. It has been decided to make no charge for admission to the grounds and the gates will be thrown wide open so that all will be welcome to visit the midway. A charge of admission will be made at each show although there will be several free open air attractions, including a 100 foot dive into a shallow tank of water by the famous New York champion, Harry Six. There will also be several bands, organs, callopes and other noise creators and, as the press agents put it, there will be something doing every minute. The voting for the queen of the carnival is now well started and new candidates are being entered every day. New names can be listed up until Wednesday of next week, while the ballot boxes will be emptied daily from noon on.

The first count of votes will be made this evening and the results made known in Thursday's issue of The Sun. The committee has now offered an additional prize of special free complimentary season passes good for admission for two ladies at every show gate on the midway. These special prizes will be awarded to the six young ladies holding the lead at the count of votes made on Monday next.

Kaiser Wilhelm's Illness is So Serious That He is Confined to His Bed

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—The Kaiser is still confined to his bed with a cold and rheumatism. While the rheumatism pains continue, they are apparently to be worse. No bulletins have been given out by his physicians, but Court Marshal Count von Bruchmann has given out an official account of his majesty's illness. It is said that this that the trouble began on Aug. 27 with a feverish chill, stiffness in the muscles and a swelling on the right side of the neck, with much pain.

Since then the Kaiser's general condition has improved, the rheumatism has disappeared and the inflammation is receding. Nevertheless his movements are so much hampered by the pains in his neck that his majesty has been obliged to abandon his visit to Baden and rest completely for some time. The maneuvers in Saxony have not been described as the "Kaiser maneuvers." They are actually the maneuvers of the Saxon army.

The Kaiser's illness is a serious one and it is expected that he will be confined to his bed for some time.

OTHER STATES WORRIED OLD OFFENDER CAUGHT

No Aid for the Bay State G. O. P. At the Point of Revolver in Somerville House

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Massachusetts republicans will have to fight their own battles this year.

Help that would ordinarily come from the "safe" states will not be available chiefly because there are scarcely any more states that are safely republican. Speakers who would be of service on the stump here are needed in their own states to take care of their own candidates for re-election or to help other republican candidates.

The fear of the republican candidates that they may be beaten by democrats because the progressives absorb the normal republican plurality is widespread. The Massachusetts delegation which has returned to Washington will be kept on the stump all the fall. Senator Lodge was at the republican state headquarters yesterday and said that he will take an active part in the campaign and do all in his power for the success of the republican ticket, both state and national.

Congressman John W. Weeks, who is a candidate for re-election to congress and will later seek election by the legislature to the United States senate, will take personal charge of his campaign from now on. He is going to Maine for a few days stumping in support of the republican state ticket, and on his return will get actively into the Massachusetts campaign. The New York congressman has no opposition in his party for the congressional nomination. Ex-Congressman John J. Mitchell of Marlboro and Daniel J. Daly of Brookline are having a contest to determine who will oppose him. It has been assumed that a progressive would be nominated in this district, but several active members of the new party who live in the district have assured Capt. Weeks that they are opposed to having such a thing done because it would result in the election of a democrat.

Congressman McCall, who has announced his candidacy for the senate, will be on the stump this fall. He is taking part in the Vermont campaign this week, but he will be available for the rest of the campaign. In all the Massachusetts delegation Congressmen McCall is the most outspoken in his opposition to Col. Roosevelt and it is expected that his candidacy for the senate will not deter him in expressing his opinion on the national issues.

Chairman Charles E. Hatfield of the republican state committee says that he proposes to conduct the campaign as previous campaigns have been conducted, with a view to securing the election of republican presidential electors, and will support party nominees from the top down.

Last night Mr. Hatfield went to Holliston to participate in the opening of the new quarters of the Holyoke Republican club. Congressman Weeks was one of the speakers.

Mr. Hatfield will have a conference with Senator Crane either in Boston or at New York before his return. The campaign plans in this state will be gone over.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—John F. Dalton was arrested yesterday afternoon at the point of a revolver by Patrolman Francis C. Perkins of the Somerville police while he was in the act of ransacking the house of Michael Driscoll, 306 Medford street.

Dalton was arrested in Somerville in 1909 for breaking and entering and larceny from the house of Dr. G. L. Marshall, Wesley Park, for which he served two years and a half. He has also served time in the Elmira reformatory, New York, and the House of Reformation, New York. He has several aliases. The police are of the opinion that he is one of the two men who escaped from Deer Island last week.

Dalton was detected at the bulkhead of the Driscoll house, which is located opposite St. Ann's church, by some neighbors. The family is away for the summer at Jefferson. Word was telephoned to Mr. Driscoll at his place of business on Warren street, Charlestown, and he notified the Somerville police.

The police automobile, with Inspector Danvers and Patrolmen Lewis and Hopkins, was sent to the house. In the meantime Patrolman Perkins, on whose route the Driscoll house is located, was told of the affair.

When Perkins arrived Dalton had forced an entrance into the house. With the arrival of reinforcements from the police station the house was surrounded and Perkins entered. He caught Dalton on the first floor and ordered him to throw up his hands. Dalton at first demurred but when he was confronted with the revolver he gave in.

When booked at the police station he gave the name of George E. Reynolds of Bunker Hill street, Charlestown, but when his picture was produced from the mugger gallery as well as his finger marks, he admitted his identity.

After gaining entrance to the cellar Dalton forced his way into the upper portion of the house by breaking panels of the cellar door with an axe he found in the cellar. Dalton is wanted in other cities, so the police claim.

READVILLE RACES GREAT SUCCESS

Horses Performed in Excellent Style at Grand Circuit Meet

READVILLE, Aug. 28.—The Grand Circuit horses raced on familiar ground yesterday, beautiful Readville, where 15 years ago today Star Pointer gave the turf its first 2-minute performer.

The changes have been many since the son of Brown Hal paced his wonderful mile, but the sport of harness racing still holds its own and yesterday there was a large first-day crowd on hand to see the Derby trotters and free-for-all pacers.

Cheney, the sweet little Texas mare, marched out with the Derby prize, and the Canadian gamecock, The Bel, topped the summary in the pacing race. These were two popular favorites, but strangely enough the paced horses went to horses that finished outside of the money.

Billy Burk, the scratch horse in the Derby, trotted faster than the record for the distance, covering the mile and one-half in 2:13 1/2, the best performance on the track being 2:17 1/2, made by Dr. Strong in 1907. Vernon McKinney cracked out the last heat of the pace in 2:03 1/2, and then got racing badly and was distanced.

Yesterday saw the fifth annual trotting of the American Derby. The conditions were novel and taken as a whole it was the most interesting Derby of the series. Four of the dash races in which the horses were classed by their records developed close contests.

The final brought four horses to the finish on nearly even terms, but this part of the race was robbed of much interest because the fastest horses, Billy Burk, Dudie Archdale, Gay Audubon and Grace, never had a chance to be dangerous, and this despite the fact that Billy Burk trotted faster than the record for the long distance, and Dudie Archdale must surely have equaled it.

Whirlwind From North
There was splendid racing, however, the free-for-all pace being worth going a long way to see. The Bel, fresh from his victories on the half-mile track, set the crowd wild with his rushes through the stretch, winning a desperately fought four-heat race.

The gray whirlwind from the north country drew the pole, but before the turn was reached James had the Whipnips stallion, Vernon McKinney, out in front, and kept him there. Independence Boy, Don Densmore and The Bel got close enough coming home to have McKinney under a drive. The mile, 2:03 1/2, was fast, for the wind was blowing a gale, catching the horse's head on going up the back stretch.

The clip took the race out of the bay stallion, for soon after getting the word in the second heat he went to a break and did not catch until so far behind that a terrifically fast five-eighths of a mile could not find him inside the flag.

Nat Ray rushed Hal B Jr to the lead, and it looked like his heat until The Bel, tearing down the stretch at a two-minute clip overhauled him almost in the last stride. McKinney tried to do the same thing in the third heat, but went a bit too long before making his drive, and in nerve racing Bush was last. Hal B Jr nosing out Independence Boy and Don Densmore.

The last named seemed to have the fourth heat in hand when the four horses came out of the upper turn, but he could not stand the hard drive, jumping just as The Bel appeared to be hanging. When Don jumped the gray horse moved on, and had enough left to stall off Hal B Jr.

Mile-Dash in the Derby
The call for the Derby horses brought Dudie Archdale, Gay Audubon and Grace to the post for the first mile dash. Grace went away on the outside, but soon was in front and realized there Grace gave the little black mare a race from the turn home, but never was really dangerous.

The dash for the 200 trotters was comfortable for Cheney, King Brook and Ruth McGregor having a pretty race for second place. The home entry, Annie Kohl, made a break early in the mile which lost her the opportunity to start in the final.

The Wanderer, Kenyon W. and Jack London had a nice brush home in the 2:10 class, the Colorado gelding winning in 2:11.

Zolock finished first in the 2:15 class, as L. Dodge drew the dash a bit too close with Castle Dome. The handicappers, of course, placed Billy Burk at scratch; Dudie Archdale, 50 feet in front of him; Grace, 120; Gay Audubon, 180; Cheney, King Brook and Ruth McGregor, 210; Kenyon W., Jack London and The Wanderer, 250; Bon Zolock, Woodford Todd and Castle Dome, 190.

The word was given on the back stretch from a standing start. Castle Dome was off being as was Jack London, who was in third place when the flag fell. Billy Burk did not get away well, and was some distance behind him. Archdale when McDonald got him straightened out.

Swinging into the stretch, Castle Dome was leading an Indian file, which was stung out nearly an eighth of a mile. Dodge made little use of him, and he made the pace until close to the finish, where Cheney overtook him, winning the $500 plum handily. Jack London was second most of the way, but tired in the last quarter.

Driver Fleming a 200 Pounder
Cheney, the Derby winner, is owned in Texas and is driven by John Fleming, a 200-pound six-footer, whose good nature helps the handsome little mare a whole lot in pulling that 50 pounds of overweight. She raced with much success on the Great Western circuit last year, and came to the Grand with a splendid reputation.

In her first race she developed a lameness which has kept her from showing her true form. At Fort Erie she came to her own, winning and taking a round of 2:01 1/2. She goes clean handed, and is one of the most admired trotters racing in the circuit.

Castle Dome, the winner of second place, is a son of Jay McGregor, owned and driven by John L. Dodge, Hollywood Farm, Middletown, N. Y.

That he is a fair king of a trotter is shown by his stepping the last lap of his nearly 1 1/2 miles in 1:12.

The program today has the stake pacers as the feature, with the 2-year-old trotters and 2:15 trotters driven by amateurs as companion pieces. Joe Patchen II, 2:03 1/2, is the best of the stake horses, and alone will be an attraction. In everything except color he reminds turf followers of his sire, the Iron Horse, Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/2. He is one of the most remarkable stake pacers the circuit has ever seen, his one defeat being a tie to a lot of tough racing luck.

Back of him this afternoon will be the most closely matched field that an early closing race has drawn in years. Guessing who will win second money to "The Big Train" has kept the boys fussed all summer. Knight Onwardo, Grand Opera and Mansfield have all had a turn at it and today the talent is just a much tie & ever.

The home bred Newmarket Girl, 2:14 1/2, starts in the race for infants and among her opponents will be the Axworthy colt, Dillon Axworthy, who is picked as one of the crack futurity candidates. The summary:

money, is a son of Jay McGregor, owned and driven by John L. Dodge, Hollywood Farm, Middletown, N. Y. That he is a fair king of a trotter is shown by his stepping the last lap of his nearly 1 1/2 miles in 1:12.

The program today has the stake pacers as the feature, with the 2-year-old trotters and 2:15 trotters driven by amateurs as companion pieces. Joe Patchen II, 2:03 1/2, is the best of the stake horses, and alone will be an attraction. In everything except color he reminds turf followers of his sire, the Iron Horse, Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/2. He is one of the most remarkable stake pacers the circuit has ever seen, his one defeat being a tie to a lot of tough racing luck.

Back of him this afternoon will be the most closely matched field that an early closing race has drawn in years. Guessing who will win second money to "The Big Train" has kept the boys fussed all summer. Knight Onwardo, Grand Opera and Mansfield have all had a turn at it and today the talent is just a much tie & ever.

The home bred Newmarket Girl, 2:14 1/2, starts in the race for infants and among her opponents will be the Axworthy colt, Dillon Axworthy, who is picked as one of the crack futurity candidates. The summary:

THE PRICE OF SHOES

Is Going Up According to Manufacturers

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Leading shoe men of Boston said last night that the price of shoes at retail would soon be advanced 10 to 20 per cent.

The increasing cost of materials and labor and overproduction of passing styles are assigned as the causes. William L. Ratcliffe, president of the Thomas G. Plant company, said: "Shoe dealers will either go out for higher prices this fall or go broke. All materials have been going higher for the last year, and especially for the last six months. I believe prices of hides and finished parts are higher now than they have been since before the Civil war. The result is that the consumer will have to pay more for his footwear."

Sales for women's shoes, for instance, which cost 33 cents a pound last December, now cost 39 cents. That means an increased cost of production of 3 1/2 cents a pair for those shoes, and the prices of all other parts have advanced in proportion.

KILLED FATHER

YOUNG MAN SAYS HE DID IT TO AID MOTHER

VINELAND, N. J., Aug. 28.—E. R. Gorton, a wealthy ivory stable keeper here, and one of the best known men in this neighborhood, was strangled to death yesterday by his son, Henry, 21 years old, who used a knife in the defence of his mother. After the stabbing the mother and son fled to the house of a relative. It was more than four hours before Mrs. Gorton would allow her son to leave her side. When she did, he went to the chief of police to surrender and tell the story of the stabbing.

HELD IN $200

MAN PLEADED GUILTY TO ASSAULTING LOWELL WOMAN

LAWRENCE, Aug. 28.—Dennis Sullivan pleaded guilty to assaulting Kate Waters in police court yesterday morning before Judge Mahoney and at the request of Assistant Marshal Logan the case was continued until August 30. He was held in $200 bonds.

The woman was found in an attic at 316 Common street early yesterday morning and she identified Sullivan as her assailant. The woman, who claims she resides in Lowell, said that she came to this city about two weeks ago and met the defendant at that time. She claimed that she had some trouble with him and he kicked her until she was senseless. When she was found it was believed that she was fatally injured and she was immediately removed to the Municipal hospital, where an examination showed that there were no serious injuries and she would probably be all right in a few days.

Marshal Logan told the court that although no serious results are expected he would like to have the case continued. The case was continued until August 30.

PET KITTEN SAVED LITTLE GIRL

It Gave Warning That the Child Was in Danger

VENICE, Cal., Aug. 28.—A pet kitten saved 12-year-old Olive Henderson of this place from probable death yesterday.

The kitten led the way to the end of an amusement pier where the child was found hanging head downward from a large spile. She had fallen from the pier and her clothing had caught on the spile. Lifeguards rescued the girl. She was badly conscious and was unable to make an outcry and enough to be ten returned, only to renew its complaint and again started away. At last the mother followed.

AMOS MUSSELMAN

HAS DEFEATED MARTINDALE FOR GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 28.—On the face of incomplete returns which are, however, considered fairly representative of the vote cast in yesterday's statewide primaries, Amos Musselman of Grand Rapids appears to have defeated Secretary of State Martindale by several thousand votes for the republican nomination for governor.

Every congressman who sought re-nomination, with the probable exception of a bare possibility of two, has been successful in his quest. There was but one contest for nomination for United States senator and Alfred Loring of Detroit, democrat, is leading George P. Hammer of Holland.

Almost rivaling in interest the fight for the republican gubernatorial nomination and surpassing it from the viewpoint of bitterly waged campaign was the struggle for the democratic nomination for mayor of Detroit. Returns partly complete show Mayor W. A. Thompson leading Justice J. Jeffries but the contest is close and a recount is generally predicted.

All of the 18 aldermen accused of bribery sought re-nomination. Several were victorious. Thomas Leach, democrat, in the fifteenth and W. H. Hindle, republican, from the seventh, had no opposition.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

TO PROMOTE FARMING

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture states that New England does not produce more than 25 per cent. of the food it consumes and that there should be an extension of the farming industry. This statement is undoubtedly true, but the question arises, how the industry can be promoted. We have trade schools of various kinds and industrial schools, but the agricultural schools are not sufficiently numerous to exert any great influence for the benefit of the industry. There is real need of instruction in farming, of schools in which young men shall be trained for the business and able to go out and establish farms and cultivate the various kinds of soil so as to make them productive. There is a great deal of waste land in Massachusetts; there are a great many farms that are but poorly tilled, and in New Hampshire there are scores of farms deserted because those who had charge of them could not cultivate them with profit.

With the cost of living as high as it is at the present time, it would appear that something should be done in this direction. The states should offer inducements of some kind to promote the farming industry. The education of young men will help immensely, but it seems that financially it might also be offered to assist men without capital to settle upon farms and make them productive.

There is money in farming at the present time, when farm products, cattle and hogs demand such high prices. The drift of population has been toward the factory cities and something should be done to reverse this tendency so that able-bodied men will leave the cities and settle upon the farms.

It is a fact that farming is becoming a lost art in Massachusetts and other New England states. Something must be done to revive it and to bring it up to the status it should occupy. It seems that under present conditions the fundamental importance of depending upon the soil for a large portion of the food supply of the people is underestimated. The suggestion of Secretary Wilson is a good one and should be taken up by our legislators so that something may be done to promote and extend the farming industry in all its branches throughout the state.

PROPAGATING THE MOTHS

It appears now that some of the moth exterminators instead of killing off the gypsies have been feeding them on luxuries on which they have waxed fat and numerous.

With the introduction of the parasite to spread the "wilt" disease among the moths, it appears that a very grave mistake has been made. A parasite was placed in a quantity of food to attract the moths on the supposition that once the moths filled upon this food the parasites would get in their work and put an end to the pest. It happens, however, that under the luxuries feeding thus provided for the moths, they have been made to defy the "wilt." Hence a new policy must be adopted if the pest is to be destroyed. Experts now have discovered that if the "wilt" parasite is to do its work effectively the moths must be put on short allowance. If the moths are kept hungry, it is alleged that the parasite will kill them off quickly. In other words the condition of the moth must be made favorable to the inroads of the disease.

The "wilt" disease under favorable conditions, it is claimed, will in due time exterminate the moth pest. It is not known, however, whether the "wilt" parasite will form the nucleus of another pest as noxious as the moths. It has been alleged that many of the plans adopted for the extermination of the moths here in Massachusetts have had the effect of increasing the pest and spreading it more widely over the country. The same appears to be the case in regard to the experiments with the "wilt" disease. Once again, however, the exterminators seem to realize their error and are ready to change their policy, although it is safe to state that many of them have been so long engaged in exterminating or propagating the moth pest that they would undoubtedly regret to find any parasite introduced that would bring the work to an end and throw them out of employment.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS

With the adjournment of congress it is usual to review the work of the session. The democrats in the house passed many progressive measures but all the best of them were vetoed by President Taft.

Champ Clark at the time of adjournment complimented the democrats and their progressive allies upon the record made, stating that what would have been accomplished but for the president's veto would have given the country a foretaste of what may be expected when the democrats are placed in control of the government next year.

Among the more important measures passed by the house are those for the popular election of senators, to prevent the improper use of money in elections, an income tax bill, parcels post bill, Sherwood dollar a day pension bill, bills admitting Arizona and New Mexico to statehood, to revoke treaty with Russia for failure to recognize our passport, placing sugar on the free list, reducing the wool schedule, and the tariff on cotton, steel and chemicals, to reduce the high cost of living by reducing tariff on necessities of life, creating a department of labor, a child labor bureau, providing a commission to settle labor disputes, requiring contract made goods to be branded as such, offering eight hour provision for post-office clerks and carriers.

The democrats in this campaign can point to the measures vetoed as showing the dividing lines between the policies of the two political parties. The republicans still stand pat on the tariff. The democrats stand for tariff reform, downward and for other popular measures of great importance.

Household vendors of jewelry will realize hereafter perhaps that they must secure a license to conduct their business. The business men who own or rent stores should not be interfered with by itinerant competitors who do not even want to pay the small fee charged for a license.

The latest detectives will be put to work in New York to procure evidence of police blackmail. The people who paid the money will admit the fact if they are granted immunity. The forthcoming revelations will doubtless confirm the worst expectations.

It is gratifying to learn from Chief Hosmer that the number of fires this month is the smallest on record for August during which brush and forest fires are usually quite numerous. The strict regulations against starting fires and burning rubbish are proving effective.

Neighbors get ready to pay higher for your coal. The operators are attempting to get on the increase by limiting the supply. How long will the government tolerate this kind of thing?

The building inspector can find many more buildings that should be condemned if he only makes a close inspection along some streets on which the oldest tenement property is found.

The board voted last night the vacation they needed during the strike. They will not have any vacation around Labor Day this year except on the holidays.

The insurance companies in many cases are playing games of chance. The company that insures the Rockingham fair against rain certainly took a chance.

Seen and Heard

Well, anyway, when we get into the new building we will not have to chase the dust from the top floor off our desks.

Janitors from these honorarium have been first coming to Mohammedan saloons—they have been seen at 10 p.m. will be, autocrats. All species of the breed possess this trait, or, more correctly, power. While the American representative of the tribe is credited with the exercising of vast authority, yet he is, it what we have feeling is true, benighted personified compared with his brother who rules the four floors of apartment houses in Vienna. In that ill-starred city exists the quintessence of janitorialism. There, that janitor being almost omnipotent.

Listen to the oppressed mortals residing in American apartment houses, and rejoice in a freedom which to a Viennese would seem only a dream, a capricious wandering of a fevered brain. In Vienna the inmates of all apartment houses must be indoors at 10 p.m. and they must stay in until 6 a.m. If for any reason whatever they break either of these commandments they must in each instance pay a fine of four cents to the janitor.

We are curious to know what happens to the unhappy person who on arriving "home" (at 10.01 p.m.) discovers that his pockets contain just three cents. Does he fall on his knees and beg the janitor to be merciful and unlock the front door, or does he hopelessly turn away and seek refuge for the night in the neighboring hot-dog cart? And at what hour do the theatres, dance halls and liquor dispensaries close their doors in Vienna? At 9.59. Pardon us that we will ever be contented to live in Vienna! Truly, this janitorial oligarchy must have been founded by those straight-jacketed gentlemen, who, existing in every community, believe that virtue ceases to be practiced after the curfew hour, and that, consequently, all right living persons should be in their homes at 10 o'clock. It is a curious belief here in the United States that janitors have made Philadelphia the show town that it is. To what a pitch of slovenliness, can one imagine, would Viennese janitors reduce that higgledy member of American municipalities?

But the authority of the Viennese janitor extends too, to other channels in the life of that city. Apply has been designated the house-master. He is who rules out for the authorities the birthplace, occupation, religion, income, political faith, age, and other personal details which in Austria are far from being a person's "own business." Yes, even that most sacred secret, a woman's age, does the Viennese janitor insist on knowing, and on knowing to the very day. The hair of the janitor is situated exactly opposite the front door. Everyone who passes in and out is, therefore, under his immediate inspection. With astonishing accuracy he sizes up the different inmates and with seemingly preternatural power drives into the secrets of their dress, their characters, their passions, their companionships, almost their very thoughts become known to this 20th century inquisitor.

How now, you Seen and Heard readers, who lie under the heels of Lowell janitors? Are your spirits not raised and your hearts thankful that the Viennese janitor stays in Vienna and think what a degraded existence would be yours were that despot to take charge of your houses? You would be ground by an oppression all as unbearable as that of Switzerland—governmental and your only hope of relief would be to rally around a liberator who would lead you in revolt, shouting the battcry of "Give us liberty or give us death!"

William Ladd of the famous bank-famly of Portland, Ore., is fussy about his hats. He likes them easy and comfortable on his head. One day he wanted a new derby and went to buy it.

The clerk showed him a lot of hats. Ladd tried them all, but none suited him. Finally he picked up a hat and put it on. It was very comfortable. "I'll take this," said Ladd.

"All right, Mr. Ladd," said the clerk, "five dollars, please."

Ladd paid the money and went along. When he got home he discovered the clerk had sold him the old hat he had worn into the store. Saturday Evening Post.

It came on his forehead first, then spread all over his scalp so that every bit of his hair came out. The eczema came in big blotches on his face and neck, which after a few days all ran into a solid mass. He used to rub them and sometimes he would make this blood come. It was in the scalp form on his body, but his head and face seemed to be a crusty mass.

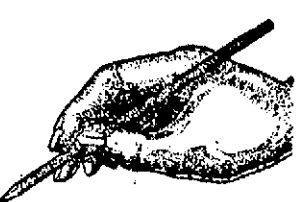

"I tried an ointment for him but it did not do him any good. I tried this one week and by that time baby was one mass of eczema from head to foot. He used to be quite restless nights, and while he had the eczema in did not grow a bit. He was terribly disfigured. I sent and got some Cuticura Ointment and Soap. I used the Cuticura Soap and ointment in a warm bath, and just covered him with the Cuticura Ointment, and he was cured in two months. ANOTHER CHILD KILLED

By an Automobile at Revere Beach

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Death at the end of a day of pleasure came to 5-year-old Annie Levine of 54 Billerica street, West End, yesterday, when she was run over by an automobile on the Revere beach boulevard. She died a few moments later in the emergency room at the state bathhouse.

The Levine girl, with friends, left her home yesterday morning to spend the day at Revere. The outing was a treat for the children and the little ones made the most of their opportunities. All preparations had been made for returning when the Levine girl, anxious for one more romp on the beach, started across the road.

She didn't see the automobile, driven by Willard V. Prior of Richmond, Va., with his owner, Isaac Davenport, also of Richmond, as a passenger. Prior tried to avoid hitting the girl, but was unable to do so.

The wheels passed over her head, fracturing her skull. Mr. Davenport picked the child up and hurried to the bath house, but the girl was dead when a doctor arrived.

Prior was arrested by Park Officer Murray, charged with manslaughter. His employer, furnished $2000. The death of the Levine girl is the fourth fatal accident on the Revere beach parkway this year.

Miss Doris Stepan of 15 Mott street, a school teacher, who witnessed the death of the little girl, hurried to Boston after the accident, intending to notify the parents of the dead girl at her home at 54 Billerica street. Near the home she met a policeman who told her he had notified the family, and advised her not to go to the house. As she started to return to her home, the nervous strain she had been under caused her to collapse at the corner of Billerica and Causeway streets. She was treated in a drug store.

NEW TERMINAL

MALDEN, MELROSE AND EVERETT PEOPLE NOT PLEASED

BOSTON, August 28.—The recent remodeling of the Sullivan square terminal station of the Boston Elevated has caused a storm of protest from Malden, Melrose and Everett patrons, who since the sweeping changes in the methods of handling the heavy traffic at the station were made are greatly inconvenienced in reaching Boston-bound "L" trains.

A foot-bridge over the elevated tracks to the new outside platform is the means provided for persons coming into the terminal on the south side or from Malden, Everett and places beyond.

The Somerville, Arlington and Medford passengers are not at all discouraged in boarding their trains.

The disgruntled suburbanites claim delay and great exertion in reaching their trains.

At least one of them reported a grievance yesterday to the railroad commission to alleviate the difficulty.

Officials of the road claim that the new method of handling the passengers from the south side of the terminal is but temporary.

The extension of the elevated system to Malden in a couple of years will settle the problem, so they say.

But few evidences of building activity have been witnessed, however, the patrons say, since the Elevated selected its route, bought property for a terminal site and completed surveys for the immediate inauguration of the work of erecting the extension.

ANGRY SOLDIERS SHOT UP TOWN

Privates in 81st Company, Coast Artillery, Went on Warpath

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 28.—Several privates of the 81st company, coast artillery corps, stationed at Port Du Pont, Del., shot up Dobbinsville, a suburb of Newcastle, Del., yesterday. They were armed with regulation guns and ball cartridges.

The main point of attack was the dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. William Maher and their four children. Nearly every window was shot out and bricks were shot from their fastenings on window ledges. The family sought safety under beds. Mr. Maher appeared at a window and implored the soldiers to stop shooting. Their reply was a bullet that grazed his hair. Residents of the town estimate that from 50 to 100 shots were fired. The cause of the trouble was a fight last night at Dobbinsville, in which the soldiers were routed. They had been drinking. They returned to the state rifle range, a couple of miles distant, where the 81st and 55th companies were installed for rifle practice, and went to bed, but a couple of hours later arose, armed themselves and started for Dobbinsville to get revenge.

In order to leave the rifle range they were forced to elude the sentries. When the soldiers got back and the affair became known six were arrested. An investigation in charge of Lieut. Marks, in command of the 81st company, was begun.

The men will be tried by a general court-martial at Port Du Pont. The penalty is imprisonment and dishonorable discharge from the army.

Although the bullets flew thick and fast, no one was hurt. The streets were deserted.

ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Two Men Arrested for a Maine Sheriff

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Within 65 minutes after a long distance telephone message had been received at police headquarters yesterday afternoon from Sheriff Low at Auburn, Me., asking for the apprehension here of two men charged with murder there, Patrolman Glancy at the North station arrested Vito Dellaba, 20 years old, and Pasquale Perelli, 17 years old, as they stepped from the train from Portland at 3:50 o'clock.

Following a stabbing affray in Auburn, Me., yesterday, as a result of which Vito Nardone of that place was killed, Sheriff Low telephoned to the Boston police. Patrolman Glancy saw two men get off the Portland train on the wrong side of the platform and start to walk off with their hands over their faces. He arrested both. They are being held for the arrival of an officer from Auburn. After this arrest had been made the chief of police of Auburn telephoned the Boston police that another man was wanted in connection with the murder, Vito Nardone, 33 years old.

TRAINING SCHOOL BOYS

Are Guests of Manager

The boys of the North Chelmsford Training school are enjoying an outing today. They were invited by the management of the Lowell baseball team to attend the game this afternoon at Spaulding park, between Worcester and Lowell and needless to say, they were elated over the invitation. They left the school at 1 o'clock, and proceeded to Middlesex street, where two special electric cars awaited them. After all were comfortably seated the start for the ball grounds was made. They arrived in Merrimack square at 2 o'clock, and they attracted quite a crowd, owing to the fact that the well known school band of 20 pieces played a number of pleasing selections.

There were 200 boys in the party, and they were in charge of James J. Larkin. The other officers of the institution also accompanied the boys. Upon reaching the park, all marched to the grandstand, where seats were reserved for their benefit. The boys greatly enjoyed the game, and the fans also had much pleasure in watching the progress of the game. The officers in charge of the school were loud in their praise of the management of the team, for the courtesy extended them. In inviting their charge to the game, the party returned to North Chelmsford in the special cars.

ZEISER IS IMPROVING

Expects to be Able to Pitch Soon

Marty Zeiser, one of Lowell's star pitchers, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, suffering from a severe cold, is improving daily and today he reported to Manager Gray at the headquarters of the team in the Hildreth building. The clever pitcher informed the manager that he is feeling much better and expects to soon be able to take his turn on the mound. Manager Gray feels that with Zeiser in condition that he will win the pennant hands down. At the present time and during Zeiser's illness the team has had but four pitchers, and as a number of double-headers have been played and are scheduled to be played during the next few days, he is anxious for Zeiser's return to the field. The latter is also anxious to get back into the harness and expects to be able to don the "monkey clothes," as he terms his uniform, by next week.

GEORGE W. CONANT

Mr. George W. Conant, who has for more than 20 years been employed by the Derby Electric Co. on Middle street, left this noon on his long journey to the island of Spitzbergen to enter the employ of the Arctic Coal Co., the main office of which is in Boston. Mr. Conant will act in the capacity of master mechanic for the firm, having had a wide experience along that line in this city. Spitzbergen is some distance north of Norway and is a distance of about 600 miles from here. Mr. Conant expects to make the trip in 16 days. The climate of the place is very cold and after the beginning of winter has no water communication whatever, the only means of reaching the outer world being the wireless telegraph. The mercury in the thermometer constantly lingers in the vicinity of 10 degrees below zero the year round. Mr. Conant will have full charge of the electric plant of the company.

THE BIGELOW CARPET CO.

To Shut Down Friday

Night Till Tuesday

The Bigelow Carpet company will close Friday evening of this week and will not resume operations until next Tuesday morning, giving the employees of the large mill a two days' vacation. While the officials of the mill intended to close the plant on Saturday day, the cause of the idleness on Saturday is due to the fact that the Brussels weavers, and many of the other employees are to do an outing to Vauxhall on that day. The weavers have distributed a large number of tickets, and as many wanted to take in the excursion and would be unable to do so if the mill worked, the officials decided to close the plant for the day, so all might take the trip.

The weavers have engaged a special train that will leave the Middlesex street station at 8 o'clock and run to Boston. The excursionists will then transfer to Rowe's wharf, where they will take the boat for the beach. Upon arrival at the well known resort, the managers have arranged for all to dine at one of the hotels there. It is expected that the party will be one of the largest that ever left this city, and they will remain at the beach until 7 o'clock. Upon returning to the Hub the Lowell, they will take the train to convey them to the Spindle City will be awaiting them. The start from the depot will be made at 8:40 o'clock.

After Two Weeks' Vacation

The Whitall Manufacturing company on Rock street will resume operations on Tuesday morning after the annual two weeks' vacation.

BELGIAN ENGINEER

SAID TO HAVE MADE AN IMPORTANT INVENTION

BRUSSELS, Aug. 28.—A mechanical appliance which will render aeroplanes so stable that they cannot upset or plunge to the ground while flying is claimed to have been invented by a Belgian engineer.

It consists of rotary wings which when put in motion permit the flying machines to rise directly from the ground, turn in all directions and plane with perfect security at any height.

Both progression and ascension, the inventor asserts, can be effected by the apparatus without any backward or forward motion of the wings. He promises fuller details in the near future.

POST OFFICE

WILL BE PRACTICALLY CLOSED ON SUNDAYS

The effects of the new Sunday law regarding the distribution of the mails will not be such as to greatly delay the mails in this city on that day, however, no mail will be distributed with the exception of the special delivery letters which will be distributed on that day. The work of dispatching the mails to out-of-town places will continue the same as before. The whole system henceforth will call for a minimum of Sunday work and the postoffice will be practically closed for the day. Some of the mails will be sorted on the trains thus enabling the Sunday delivery to the lock boxes even on Sunday. However, the general work of mail distribution will be discontinued from midnight of Saturday to 12 o'clock on Sunday night.

YOUR BABY'S HEALTH DEPENDS ON ITS NOURISHMENTS

In nature's original plan, infants were nourished by mother's milk, but in our modern civilization this is often neither possible nor even advisable.

Failing the natural food, one instinctively turns to cow's milk, but this cannot always be used, as owing to its variable quality and the heavy indigestible curd, the delicate stomach of a young baby cannot always digest the nutriment which it undoubtedly contains.

In such cases

BORDEN'S Malted Milk

IN THE SQUARE PACKAGE

meets every requirement. It contains six times the nutriment of ordinary milk, but the curd being broken up by digestive agents in the malt every particle of nutriment is easily absorbed by the very youngest. Get free trial package and special booklet on Infant feeding from your druggist, or from

MOOSE CARNIVAL

ARRANGEMENTS FOR WEEK AT WASHINGTON PARK

The local Moose committee reports excellent progress in connection with the big Moose carnival and claims to be held at the Washington park grounds all next week and will seem fully satisfied with the prospects.

It has been decided to make no charge for admission to the grounds and the gates will be thrown wide open so that all will be welcome to visit the midway. A charge of admission will be made at each show although there will be several free open air attractions, including a 100 foot dive into a shallow tank of water by the famous New York champion, Harry Six.

There will also be several bands, organs, calypso and other noise creators and, as the press agents put it, there will be something doing every minute. The voting for the queen honors of the carnival is now well started and new candidates are being entered every day. New names can be listed up until Wednesday of next week, while the ballot boxes will be emptied daily from now on.

The first count of votes will be made this evening and the results made known in Thursday's issues of The Sun. The committee has now offered an additional prize of special free complimentary season passes good for admission for two ladies at every show gate on the midway. These special prizes will be awarded to the six young ladies holding the lead at the count of votes made on Monday next.

O. M. I. CADETS ARE KEPT BUSY

Camp Great Success and Big Program Tomorrow

The members of the O. M. I. cadets spent their first night on the battlefield last night, and despite the rather chilly atmospheric conditions, all slept well and were quick to respond to the call to arise at 6:45 o'clock this morning.

The boys made provisions for unfavorable weather conditions, being so instructed by Lieut. Bernard McArdle, who is in charge of the encampment. Lieut. McArdle, has had considerable experience in camp life, owing to his long service in the regular army and he informed the boys how to prepare for war in time of peace. Hence the youngsters were well "fortified" with bed clothing and shortly after taps was sounded the young soldiers were in the land of nod, the young hearts filled with anticipation for the enjoyments of today's program.

Upon emanating from their little canvas coverings this morning, they immediately started in to make the best of the opportunities afforded by the ideal weather. Their regular program as announced by the military instructor was then begun and all details were carried out to the letter. The boys also enjoyed bathing, baseball and other games, under the watchful eye of Matthew McCann, physical director, while at all times, they are under the surveillance of their popular chaplain, Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I.

The work of today was given to the complete satisfaction of all, and it is expected that tomorrow will be one of the most pleasant of the week, owing to the fact that the youngsters will have as their guest, Humphrey Nod, the young hearts filled with an-cadets, and one who is greatly interested in their success. Mr. O'Sullivan will be accompanied by several other guests and it is expected that Hon. David I. Webb of Pittsburg will be among those present. The full executive board of the cadets will be on hand, and they will attend to the arrangements of receiving the guests. While Mr. O'Sullivan will address the gathering, another important feature is to be carried out. The latter will be the conferring of Mr. O'Sullivan's commission as honorary colonel of the cadets and during the festivities all members of the organization will assist. Later a band concert will be given and other events carried out.

Mr. O'Sullivan and his party will arrive at camp at 4 o'clock, and will have mess with the boys at 5:30. They will remain until late in the evening.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

improvised canopy that suited the purpose fairly well and they seemed to enjoy it. The instructor there, Miss Mabel E. Haggerty, a graduate of the Lowell High school, has worked very conscientiously during the playground season and the children are very fond of her. She had some big boys to contend with, too, and she managed them as successfully as she did the smaller children. The exhibition in industrial work, including sewing, basket work, etc., at the Paige street grounds was very interesting and it was rather wonderful to note the progress that the little ones had made in the "fine arts." While the exhibition in industrial work was in order, the boys were playing ring toss, croquet, handball, pitch and catch, and

HORATIUS B. LEGGAT,
Supervisor Aiken Street Playgrounds

the teeters, swings and other apparatus were well patronized. There was some folk dancing, story telling and finger plays and the exhibition, as a whole, was good to see.

The Greenhalse playgrounds in Ensell street is also a very attractive spot today, and was visited by a large number of people who complimented these in charge for their success in training the children to amuse themselves in a family way, irrespective of nationality, and especially the women folks who, through their untiring efforts have shown the little ones how the friend and saw. The supervisor for the girls is Miss Helen M. Ward, while her assistants are Misses Eugenie Frappier and Elsa Bradley.

The exhibition was held in one of the school corridors, and there, too, the collection is fine and varied and consists mostly of useful articles. One can see garments of all descriptions as well as fancy work, including a rich assortment of baskets and other small things the children like to make, and everything is handwork. There is also a fine variety of lace and embroidery, while one piece which deserves special mention is a large quilt which is a beauty. It contains several pieces all well matched and all was done with the needle by a young girl. There is also a number of small articles made by the smaller ones and the entire exhibit is worth seeing.

MABEL E. HAGGERTY,
Supervisor of Paige Street Playgrounds

The little girls this afternoon greatly entertained their parents and visitors with a game of captain ball, the participants being the Reds and the Blues. Folk dancing was also in order, while competitive games of croquet, basketball and bean bag were held. The little tots enjoyed the ring games and story telling.

The boys who are now in charge of Mr. James H. Rooney went through the following athletic program: Fifty yard dash, 75 yard dash, high jump, pole vaulting, relay races and, last but not the least, two ball games, one between the Red Eagles and the Clippers, while the other was between the Red Sox and the Bostons.

Co. and his successor was Mr. James H. Rooney.

North Common
The last place visited by the reporter was the North common playground, where there was also a very large attendance. The work by the little girls during the summer was conducted in the Morrill school, but the exhibition of the different articles was this afternoon held on the common. A large table was placed opposite the school, and it was handsomely decorated with all sorts of fancy work. The little girls are in care of Miss Grace McAllister, who is ably assisted by Misses Ethel Park and Anna McNabb.

A fine entertainment program was given this afternoon and the work was highly complimented by those present. The program consisted of folk dancing, shoemaker, "How Do You Do, My Partner," Highland schottish, children's polka, mountain march, "Annie Went to the Cabbage Patch," Virginia reel, "Farmer in the Dell," "Shall We Show You How the Farmer," "Come and Skip with Me," "Cat and Rat," and several other amusing sketches. Captain and volley ball were also played while a number of races were held among the younger ones. The program was finished with a final march.

MANY WITNESSES QUESTIONED TODAY'S STOCK MARKET OTHER STATES WORRIED OLD OFFENDER CAUGHT

In Alleged Dynamite Conspiracy Cases in Lawrence

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Interest in the investigation of an alleged conspiracy by mail officials to secure dynamite in Lawrence during the general strike there last winter centered today in the report of the Suffolk county grand jury, which was expected to be submitted to the superior court within a short time. If the grand jury should find that the conspiracy was a bona fide one, it would be a serious blow to the dynamite trust in the state.

District Attorney Palmer questioned a number of witnesses in the case this morning. It was understood that the grand jury heard all the evidence and that the case would be submitted to the grand jury. The grand jury was expected to find that the conspiracy was a bona fide one, and that the dynamite trust was a serious threat to the state.

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 28.—The New Bedford Co-operative bank and the Acushnet Co-operative bank, of which Charles R. Price, now under arrest, was the treasurer, have served notice upon the directors of the banks that they would file a claim for the full amount of the bond, $10,000.

Outside of this and the election by the directors of Charles R. Price, the secretary, as temporary treasurer, there were no new developments today. The banks are now in a state of confusion, and the directors are trying to get the banks back on their feet.

SEVERAL LOSSES ON STOCKS DURING THE FINAL HOUR TODAY

This Was Noticeable in Copper and American Tobacco Issues—The Market Was Heavy At the Close

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Heavy dealing in steel and reading at slight fractional gains were the prominent features at the opening of today's stock market. Most other active issues, with the exception of Amalgamated, opened slightly above yesterday's closing quotations. Pacific Mail, however, opened a full point lower.

Considerable pressure followed the opening, and many of the leading stocks sold from one-half to three-quarters below yesterday's closing. Stocks opened at a higher range today with special activity in Steel and Reading, but selling pressure and realizing for profit soon obliterated most gains. The character of the trading was even more professional than usual, yesterday's movement in certain specialties having failed to stimulate public interest to any appreciable extent. Canadian Pacific reflected continuing reports dealing with its proposed capital increase and Rock Island, coming and going, Erie, and the high Valley and Nashville all showed underlying strength. The latter showed two points on rumors of early developments.

Prices advanced slowly again. Canadian Pacific and Reading were in demand but there was little change to the specialties.

The market closed heavy. Stocks manifested a more pronounced tendency to drop in the final hour with losses of 1 to 2 points in the coppers and American Tobacco issues.

No Aid for the Bay At the Point of Revolver in Somerville House

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Massachusetts republicans will have to fight their own battles this year. Help that would ordinarily come from the "safe" states will not be available chiefly because there are scarcely any more states that are safe. Speakers who would be of service on the stump have been in their own states to take care of their own candidates for re-election or to help other republican candidates.

The fear of the republican candidates that they may be beaten by democrats because the progressives are the normal republican plurality is widespread. The Massachusetts delegation which has returned to Washington will be kept on the stump all the while. Senator Lodge was at the state headquarters yesterday and said that he will take an active part in the campaign and do his best to help the success of the republican ticket, both state and national.

Congressman John W. Weeks, who is a candidate for re-election to congress and will later seek election by the legislature to the United States senate, will take personal charge of his campaign from now on. He is going to Maine for a few days stopping in support of the republican state ticket, and on his return will get actively into the Massachusetts campaign. The Newton congressman has no opposition in his party for the congressional nomination. Ex-congressman John J. Mitchell of Middleboro and Daniel J. Daly of Brookline are having a contest to determine who will oppose him. It has been assumed that a progressive would be nominated in this district, but several active members of the new party who live in the district have assured Capt. Weeks that they are opposed to having such a thing done because it would result in the election of a democrat.

Congressman McCall, who has announced his candidacy for the senate, will be on the stump this fall. He is taking part in the Vermont campaign this week, but he will be available for the rest of the campaign. In all the Massachusetts delegations, McCall is the most outspoken in his opposition to Col. Roosevelt, and he is expected that his candidacy for the senate will not deter him in expressing his opinion on the national issues.

Chairman Charles E. Hatfield of the state committee says that the campaign is progressing well, and that the republican ticket will be successful. He says that the republican ticket will be successful, and that the republican ticket will be successful.

NASHUA FAIR

IT PROMISES TO BE A GREAT EVENT

A stage show costing about $3000 a day will be presented to the patrons of the New Hampshire state fair at Nashua, beginning later day, Sept. 2, and continuing for the following three days, the 3d, 4th and 5th. This is in addition to the larger features, Harry N. Atwood, who is to make three fights with the famous Capt. Ripplene, the daily track events, including automobile, motor-cycle and horse racing and other events. This show is to be absolutely free and will be given on the mammoth outdoor stage in front of the grandstand.

Poland and Adriel will present a truly wonderful act. One member of the team will perform by his partner on a pole held in mid-air. The greatest terpsichorean artists in the world, Leona Lamar, one of the most beautiful girls on the stage whose costumes are imported from Parisian designers, dances and performs difficult feats of contortion. Montague's Comedy "matinee" is the limit in bird training. The act includes the Roman chariot parade, the Butterfly dance, rolling globe feats and fire scene. McCune and Grant are renowned bar performers. The act they present is funny as well as thrilling. Then there will be the La Dore brothers, barrel jumpers and acrobats, and other high class acts.

The management is by no means depending upon such attraction as Harry Atwood and the spectacular stage show for the success of the fair. It acquires new and novel features as well as retaining the older and popular ones. A dog show will be an additional attraction. Tom B. Middlebrook, No. Market street, Boston, will have charge of the canine department. Mr. Middlebrook is a noted dog man. He declares that the dogs, not the pedestrians, will be judged.

The agricultural and live stock exhibit and the midway will be larger than ever and of unusual excellence. The Nashua fair is noted for its grounds, buildings and its prestige and you are sure to fare best at this best fair.

Last year about 40,000 people passed through the gates and attended the Nashua fair, on Labor day. This is regarded as exceedingly heavy attendance, and it is. Yet when the big state fairs at Nashua this year, on Labor day, and the continuation for the following three days, September 3d, 4th and 5th, the attendance, it is expected will equal, if not surpass, that of last year.

The best attractions are none too good for the New Hampshire state fair management. Expense is not spared.

The stage show that is adjudged the most expensive, spectacular and elaborate ever presented, absolutely free of charge, will be given on the mammoth stage, in front of the grandstand. John Myers will sing and will be accompanied by an augmented band. He is known as "The man who sings the best band." John Hattie's Big City show will be on the midway. There will be daily track events, auto, motorcycle and horse racing. Fuhler's toy will be livelier and longer than ever. The livestock, agricultural, art and science exhibits will be of unusual excellence. You'll fare best at this best fair. It has the grounds, the buildings and the prestige.

A midway to the average attendant of an agricultural fair or cattle show, is what Broadway is to a country youth. The midway always has its share of attention. The small boy and the adults are alike when it comes to choosing a place where the most of the time, while on the fair grounds, will be passed. The midway seems to be the favorite place. Its excitement and its humor attracts.

Yet, the midway doesn't induce people to come within the grounds. The average patron expects the midway, the exhibits and the racing so the management must furnish something more alluring. The management of the Nashua fair has. It has contracted for Harry Atwood, the world's greatest aviator, and he will give three shows each day. In addition to the show is to be given absolutely free of charge in front of the grandstand and it will be the most elaborate and spectacular ever seen at any fair in New England. The show will cost about $2000 a day. The auto races and the dog show are new features.

GOV. MARSHALL IS SLATED TO SPEAK IN BANGOR TONIGHT

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 28.—The campaign tour which Gov. Marshall of Indiana is making in Maine in behalf of his party's state ticket had Bangor for its objective today with a rally arranged for this evening. The program of the democratic campaign of re-election provided for two democratic governors on the same platform, Gov. Marshall of Maine, who is seeking re-election, being scheduled as a speaker at tonight's meeting. It was announced that campaign contributions by corporations could be discussed by Governor Marshall in his Bangor speech. This subject, he explained, comes as a logical sequence to the addresses made by him at Portland and at Augusta where the tariff and the trusts were discussed respectively.

Governor Marshall said he would deal in personalities in talking about campaign contributions by corporations but would criticize the conditions which would permit such gifts.

TRIED "SLIDE FOR LIFE"

Boy Was Killed While Playing Circus

WEBSTER, Aug. 28.—While trying the "slide for life" hanging by his teeth, in imitation of a stilt performer, he had seen at a summer resort a few days ago, John Makowski, 11-year-old son of John Makowski of 22 Whitcomb street, fell to the ground, 25 feet yesterday afternoon and was killed. His skull and hips were fractured.

Makowski and several companions ran a wire between two trees. Makowski was the first to make the try and had just left the starting point when he lost his hold on the latter side. He had been held by his companions until he had got up his nerve to make the start.

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION MILWAUKEE, WIS., AUG. 28

Having approved a model uniform law intended for adoption by all the states to prohibit the employment of children under certain ages, the American Bar association discovered that it had gone on record against the use in any part of the country of "caddies" under 14 years of age. The proposed law, as offered by Walter Smith of Pennsylvania, provides that no boy less than 14 shall be permitted to work in or about, among other places "any boarding house, barber shop, laundry, garage, place of amusement or club."

"Inasmuch as lawyers are generous patrons of golf it is with considerable perplexity that we discover we have gone on record in favor of putting our important allies out of business," said Smith. "We had no animosity against the caddie, but merely were considering the welfare of children in general. Now we will have to part company with our cherubic pink-checked assistant and employ those of tougher age."

Mr. Smith's explanation of the exit of the 14-year-old caddie was received with applause and the proposed law was endorsed unanimously.

DOCTORS SAY THAT GIRL IS SERIOUSLY ILL

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—"Two taken corrosive sublimate tablets," announced Bessie Allan, 25 years old, who rooms at 1247 Washington street, as she drew herself into the station house on East Dedham street yesterday afternoon.

She was taken to the City hospital, arriving there in time for the doctors to take her into the hospital. She is seriously ill.

The police have been unable to learn whether she took the poison by mistake or tried to kill herself. The girl refused to talk.

She told the police her parents reside on Carterwright road in Wellesley, but neither the Boston nor Wellesley police were able to find them.

SIX INJURED CAR JUMPED AN EMBANKMENT AT SAYBROOK, CONN.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 28.—An automobile with six women and chauffeur went down a 20-foot embankment near Chester Cove, a few miles north of Saybrook on the Connecticut river at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and all of the occupants were injured, one of them, Miss Wilcox, to such an extent that she was rushed to Middlesex hospital at Middletown for treatment.

The auto, owned by Mrs. Clara Saunders, who has a summer residence at Saybrook, was running at a slow rate, it is reported, when it suddenly left the main road and plunged down the bank, the passengers being thrown about, but escaping the machine.

All of the passengers are reported to be visitors from Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Saunders had invited her friends to an afternoon ride along the Connecticut shore, and the auto was taking a detour through Chester when the accident happened.

Miss Wilcox, whose first name could not be ascertained from Dr. Fred Sumner of Chester, who was summoned to attend to the injured party, was badly injured about the face, her glasses being driven into her eyes and her hair otherwise disfigured.

At the hospital the attendant who answered the telephone at 10 o'clock said Miss Wilcox's case was very serious. Neither Dr. Smith nor the hospital gave any definite details about the party, except one of the passengers was Mrs. Gardner, sister of Miss Wilcox.

READVILLE RACES GREAT SUCCESS

Horses Performed in Excellent Style at Grand Circuit Meet

READVILLE, Aug. 28.—The Grand Circuit horses raced on familiar ground yesterday, beautiful Readville, where 15 years ago today Stat Pointer gave the turf its first 2-minute performer.

The changes have been many since the son of Brown Hat paced his wonderful mile, but the sport of harness racing still holds its own and yesterday there was a large first-day crowd on hand to see the Derby trotters and free-for-all pacers.

Cheney, the sweet little Texas mare, marched off with the Derby prize, and the Canadian gamecock, The Del, topped the summary in the pacing race. These were two popular favorites, but strangely enough the speed honors went to horses that finished outside of the money.

Billy Burk, the scratch horse in the Derby, trotted faster than the record for the distance, covering the mile and one-half in 2:15. The best performance on the books being 3:17, made by Dr. Strong in 1911. Vernon McKinney cracked out the 1st heat of the race in 2:03, and then got acting badly and was distanced.

Yesterday saw the fifth annual trotting of the American Derby. The conditions were novel and, taken as a whole, it was the most interesting Derby of the series. Four of the dash races in which the horses were classed by their records developed close contests.

The final brought four horses to the finish on nearly even terms, but this part of the race was robbed of much interest because the fastest horses, Billy Burk, Daddie Archdale, Gay Audubon and Grace, never had a chance to be dangerous, and this despite the fact that Billy Burk trotted faster than the record for the long distance, and Daddie Archdale must surely have equaled it. Whirlwind From North.

There was splendid racing, however, the free-for-all pace being worth-while long way to see. The Del, fresh from his victories on the half-mile tracks, set the crowd wild with his rushes through the stretch, winning a desperately fought four-heat race.

The gray whirlwind from the north country drew the pole, but before the turn was reached James had the whip snapping, and Vernon McKinney, out in front, and kept him there. Independence Boy, Don Densmore and The Del got close enough coming home to have McKinney under a drive. The mile, 2:03, was fast, for the wind was of wing a gale, catching the horse's head on going up the back stretch.

The clip took the race out of the hay stallion, for soon after getting the word in the second heat he went to a break and did not catch until so far behind that a terrifically fast five-eighths of a mile could not "no him inside the place."

Nat Ray rushed Hal B Jr to the lead, and it looked like his heat until The Del, tearing down the stretch at a two-minute clip overhauled him almost in the last stride. McKinney tried to do the same thing in the third heat, but waited a bit too long before making his drive, and in nerve racking finish was last, Hal B Jr nailing out Independence Boy and Don Densmore.

The last named seemed to have the fourth heat in hand when the four horses came out of the upper turn, but he could not stand the hard drive, jumping just as The Del appeared to be hanging. When Don jumped the gray horse moved on, and had enough left to stall off Hal B Jr.

Mile Dash in the Derby
The call for the Derby horses brought Daddie Archdale, Gay Audubon and Grace to the post for the first mile dash. Geers went away on the outside, but soon was in front and remained there. Grace gave the little black mare a race from the turn home, but never was really dangerous.

The dash for the 200 trotters was comfortable for Cheney, King, Brook and Ruth McGregor having a pretty race for second place. The home entry, Annie Kohl, made a break early in the mile which left her the opportunity to start in the final.

The Wanderer, Kenyon W. and Jack London had a nice brush home in the 210 class, the Colorado gelding winning in 2:11.

Don Zolock finished first in the 215 class, as J. L. Dodge drew the finish a bit too close with Castle Dome. The handicappers, of course, placed Billy Burk at scratch; Daddie Archdale, 50 feet in front of him; Grace, 150; Gay Audubon, 160; Cheney, King, Brook and Ruth McGregor, 240; Kenyon W. and Jack London, and The Wanderer, 250; Don Zolock, Woodford Todd and Castle Dome, 440.

The word was given on the back stretch from a standing start. Castle Dome was off flying, as was Jack London, who was in third place when the flag fell. Billy Burk did not get away well and was some distance behind Daddie Archdale when McDonald got him straightened out.

Swinging into the stretch, Castle Dome was leading an Indian file, which was stung out nearly as close as a mile. Dodge made little use of him, and he made the pace until close to the finish, where he overtook him, winning the $2000 plus handicap. Jack London was second most of the way, but tired in the last quarter.

Driver Fleeting a 200 Pounder
Cheney, the Derby winner, is owned in Texas and is driven by John Fleming, a 200-pound six-footer, whose good nature helps the handsome little mare a whole lot in pulling that 50 pounds of overweight. She raced with much success on the Great Western circuit last year, and came to the Grand with a splendid reputation.

In her first race she developed a lameness which has kept her from showing her true form. At Fort Lida she came to her own, winning and taking a record of 2:07. She goes clean limbed, and is one of the most admired trotters racing in the circuit. Castle Dome, the winner of second money, is a son of Jay McGregor, owned and driven by John L. Dodge, Hollywood Farm, Middle-town, N. Y. That he is a fair king of a trotter is shown by his stepping the last lap of his nearly 1 1/2 miles in 1:45.

The program today has the stake pacers as the feature, with the 2-year-old trotters and 215 trotters driven by amateurs as companion pieces. Joe (Ray), 2:07 1/2, is the best of the stake horses, and alone will be an attraction. In everything except color he reminds turf followers of his sire, the Iron Horse, Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/2. He is one of the most remarkable stake pacers the circuit has ever seen, his one defeat being a 2 to 1 bet of tough racing luck.

Back of him this afternoon will be the most closely matched field that an early closing race has drawn in years. Guessing who will win second money to "The Big Train" has kept the boys from all summer. Knight Onward, Grand Opera and Mansfield have all had a turn at it and today the talent is just as much a see-saw.

The home bred Nonaday girl, 2:16 1/2 starts in the race for infants and among her opponents will be the worthy colt, Dillon Sawyer, who is picked as one of the future futurity candidates. The summary:

M'FADGEN NOT GUILTY

Of Causing the Death of
Sven Nelson

Judge Frederic A. Fisher, who presided at the inquest into the cause of the death of Sven Nelson, a resident of Chelmsford, who was struck by an automobile in Chelmsford street, on August 24th and died three days later, has returned to Lowell after the inquest. The verdict was that M'Fadgen was not guilty of causing the death of Sven Nelson. The inquest was held at the Chelmsford street station, and was attended by a large number of people. The verdict was reached after a long and careful consideration of the evidence. The judge stated that the evidence was not sufficient to prove that M'Fadgen was guilty of causing the death of Sven Nelson. The verdict was a relief to M'Fadgen, who had been charged with the crime of causing the death of Sven Nelson.
